"Invasion" Of Amador County Being Mapped

Strategic Advance On Jackson Sketched By Legion

A "mass movement" of the membership of El Dorado Post No. 119, American Legion, into Amador County with Jackson as its objective is being planned by a special "board of strategy" under the supervision of Commander Willard Wilkinson.

The reason: El Dorado Post for the second consecutive year has defeated the Jackson post in a membership campaign and wins a dinner from the Jackson post. The score was 157 to 154.

Definite date for the "attack" has not been set, but will be sometime in the spring, and the indications are that the members of the Jackson post will pay and pay dearly.

It is even rumored that the El Dorado Legionnaires are making arrangements to obtain substitutes for certain of their membership who may have to work on the night in question, so that the substitutes may take the place of the Legion men on the job and thus insure the attendance of at least 157 of the post's 157 membership if, as and when the dinner is staged.

Newspaper reports from Jackson state that they expect the El Dorado Legionnaires to "start walking over from Placerville two days ahead of the event if transportation cannot be arranged for them" so Jackson apparently knows what to expect.

The membership campaign for El Dorado Post was led by D. W. Le Bourveau, who reports that the members are still enthused over the wonderful dinner and the hospitality of the Jackson post at last year's event and a record attendance is in prospect.

"Bevo" was quick to deny the report that any additional memberships are being solicited by El Dorado Post by transfer from other nearby units.

"We'll have enough at the dinner without that," he declared.

Legionnaires declare it's all in fun and El Dorado Post knows full well that if the tables were turned, their position would be the same as that of the Jackson post.

While "marking time" for the "invasion," El Dorado Post is fulfilling a lively February schedule. Next event is a social dance, February 10.

The next regular meeting of the post is on February 17.

AGED SECURITY ALLOWANCES BY BOARD REPORTED

A transposition of lines of type in the Board of Supervisors' minutes, as printed Thursday, has been called to our attention and the following is the correct report, having to do with old age security allowances:

Applications for old age security filed with the Board and the said applications are hereby approved in the following sums to-wit:

Name	County	State	Fed.	Total
Thos. Patrick O'Neill			$10.00	$10.00
Chas. Edelman			7.50	7.50
Emma C. Brown			6.25	6.25
John Henry Grace			7.50	7.50
John Robert Smith			7.50	7.50
Daniel Sherman Clark			5.75	5.75

Mrs. Elizabeth Sayers, county welfare officer, whose headquarters are at Charles and Chapel Streets, announces her schedule of work as follows:

On Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays she will devote her time to receiving applications and counseling with those making applications for Old Age Security.

On Tuesdays and Thursdays she will attend to county commissary duties.

It is requested that those having business with the welfare officer arrange their schedules accordingly, since it is necessary that the work be segregated in this manner in the interest of efficient management.

River Levees Hold Rampant Mississippi

Army Engineers Keep Vigilant Watch Over Torrent

By VALCO LYLE

United Press Staff Correspondent
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP)—Five hundred thousand residents of the Mississippi Valley, waiting behind a billion dollar levee system, were confident today that they could meet and master the nation's worst flood.

The crest rolled out of the Ohio River into the Mississippi, pushed up against the levee at New Madrid, Mo., tested a wall at Hickman, Ky., and went on its way on the long roll down to the Gulf.

Army engineers said that Cairo had passed the major point although they predicted that the water would remain at its present level for three or four days.

Hickman, sitting behind a wall, was gaining by the hour in its race against the river. Workmen piled sand bags higher and higher on the wall and were encouraged when the river began dropping by fractions of an inch.

The water also was lower along the dikes protecting Reelfoot Lake, which is close to Tiptonville, Tenn., where 2000 refugees are concentrated.

Despite optimistic reports from almost every sector, army engineers refused to relax their vigilance along the 1,200 mile front line of dikes, walls and levees, stretching all the way to New Orleans. Between Cairo and Hickman 140 coast guard boats were standing by. Sand bags and lumber are concentrated at strategic points all the way from Cairo to Helena, Ark.

MARINE STRIKE ENDS AS 40,000 RETURN TO WORK

By MILLER HOLLAND

United Press Staff Correspondent
SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—The Pacific Coast reopened its ports today after a compromise settlement of a 98-Shipowners and workers characterized day strike by 40,000 maritime workers, it a "settlement without victory for either side."

The men voted 35,906 to 5,036 for acceptance of tentative agreements and return to work.

The agreements provided pay increases ranging from $10 to $15 a month, cash payment for overtime, and working conditions "standardized as far as possible." The men had sought pay increases ranging to $27.50 monthly.

Shipowners won a guarantee against quickie strikes, and the right to "select freely men who in their opinion are best fitted for the jobs at hand."

It was the longest and costliest maritime strike in commercial history.

Union Oil Adds Man To Staff In County

Carol Perrine, manager of the Union Oil Company's service station at Willows, has been transferred from that point to Placerville to fill the vacancy in the service station organization created by the advancement of Jack Wilson to the truck salesman's position.

Perrine was succeeded at Willows by the transfer of R. G. Walters from the Redding agency.

Mrs. Edith Preuett Rites On Saturday

The funeral services for Mrs. Edith Eleanor Preuett, wife of Silas Preuett and for many years a resident of the Aukum section, will be held on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Burial will be at the cemetery at that place. In addition to her husband, Mrs. Preuett is survived by a brother and a sister.

A notice of their intention to wed was filed with the county clerk on February 4 by Ernest Dooley of Ione, and Pauline Zanini of Shingle Springs.

THEIR PAL—A Louisville father holds his baby under his coat while his wife protects herself with an umbrella as they are saved from their flooded home in a boat well-called "Pal." Rescues like this are a common sight in the flood-swept Ohio River valley, where entire towns and cities were paralyzed by the disaster.

10 CITIZENS NATURALIZED

50 Pupils Of Grammar School Present At Hearing

Ten were granted final citizenship papers and Certificates of Naturalization on Thursday at a hearing conducted in Superior Court by Judge George H. Thompson with Z. B. Jackson, naturalization examiner.

The hearing was attended, as a part of their study in civics, by approximately 50 pupils of the eighth grade of Placerville grammar school with their teachers, Miss Eleanor Scherer and Miss Ruth Henson.

SHERIFF CALLS FOR TROOPS IN MOTORS STRIKE

FLINT, Mich. (UP)—Sheriff Thomas W. Wolcott announced today he had telegraphed Governor Frank Murphy asking for the assistance of the national guard to evict sit-down strikers from two General Motors plants.

A writ of attachment, enforcement of which would evict 1,000 sit-down strikers from General Motors plants, was signed today by Circuit Judge P. V. Gadola, according to Ralph Gault, General Motors counsel.

PARLEY RESUMED

DETROIT (UP)—General Motors Corporation and the committee for industrial organization sent representatives into a third day of conference today under pressure from President Roosevelt for settlement of their labor dispute.

Son Born Thursday In Dr. Atwood Home

Dr. and Mrs. T. Galt Atwood of San Francisco, are the parents of a son, born Thursday, February 4. The young man's name is John DeHaven Atwood. The young man is the first grandson of Mrs. Marion Atwood and the late Ted C. Atwood of this city, and his maternal grandfather is the late Judge J. J. DeHaven of San Francisco.

The boy is the second child of Dr. and Mrs. Atwood, the first child being a girl.

Junior Ski Tourney Off

Rain Postpones Meet Until Sometime In March

The junior ski tournament scheduled to be held Sunday at Pacific Hill under auspices of the Placerville Ski Club, has been called off.

President Adolph Martin reports the club will seek to re-schedule the tournament for an early March date and all arrangements made for the February 7 meeting will be held in abeyance until that time.

The meeting had the sanction of the California Ski Association and among the entries were the state Class C and Class D jumping champions. Setting of the later date will depend upon whether the Placerville club can obtain the sanction of the state association for the date which they seek.

Decision to postpone the meeting was reached after a survey showed the road between Placerville and Pacific House not satisfactory for a large amount of travel; and the hill at Pacific in poor condition as a result of the two-day rains.

No Basketball For H. S. Team Tonight

The scheduled C.I.F. league basketball games between Sutter Creek and the Cougars, which were booked for tonight at the high school gymnasium, have been postponed.

Last week's games with Jackson also were postponed and a re-scheduling of the games will follow the resumption of school classes, now expected to begin Monday.

Walter W. Murphy Is Taken By Death

Friends have received word of the death Thursday of Walter W. Murphy, 53, well-known stockman of Calaveras and San Joaquin Counties.

Mr. Murphy was a member of El Dorado Commandery No. 4, Knights Templar; of Calaveras Chapter No. 82, R.A.M., and of Keystone Lodge No. 161, F. & A. M., of Milton.

The funeral services will be on Monday at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon from the Wallace mortuary chapel, at Stockton.

Lyman A. Bender was a caller from Pleasant Valley, Friday.

Total 21.74

The normal to March 1 is 28.1278.

Rainfall in Placerville was about 93 per cent of normal for the season at 8 o'clock Friday morning as the result of a two-day storm over the northern part of the state which left 4.47 inches of rain in Placerville from 8 o'clock Thursday morning until the same hour Friday.

Little serious damage has been reported.

Some loss accrues as a result of water running into basements. The forest service warehouse on Pacific Street was partly flooded.

Flood waters swept across the junction of Main, Charles and Canal Streets and Hangtown Creek became a roaring torrent but was, as far as was reported, within its banks.

West of Placerville on the Lincoln highway a slide of some magnitude almost blocked the road when the wall of a high bank on the north side of the highway caved in.

Travel was maintained, cars being routed around the slide without difficulty.

Adolph Martin, local co-operative weather observer, had a report from the head of the P. G. & E. canal near Silver Fork to the effect that 2.50 inches of rain fell there Thursday.

This was also the official measurement in Placerville for Thursday, plus 1.97 inches up to 8 o'clock Friday with the storm continuing.

Twin Lakes reported eight inches of new snow and a total depth of 88 inches Friday morning.

Telegraph reports from other sections indicated rail and motor travel across the Siskiyou was halted, the Donner summit was temporarily closed to auto traffic and the entire north portion of the state received a thorough soaking with gales in some sections uprooting trees and causing other damage.

Mrs. Hoffman Laid At Rest On Friday

The funeral services for Mrs. Ruth Hoffman, wife of Henry Hoffman of Pleasant Valley, were to be held Friday afternoon from the Pleasant Valley school, near her home. Rev. Harold Morehouse was to be in charge and burial was arranged at Pleasant Valley cemetery.

School Textbooks That Mislead

For two years past the California Joint Immigration Committee has sought to prevent the use in California public schools of text books in which there is concealment or misrepresentation of facts in connection with the part played by Japan in immigration matters and in world affairs with which the United States has concern. Misleading statements of the character referred to, whether made with intent or because of lack of knowledge on the part of the author, have tended to induce in student and instructor an impression that Japan should be conceded her demand for admission of her emigrants under quota, in violation of the established policy of the United States. The Institute of Pacific Relations in February, 1935, announced that it had arranged for the introduction into 152 public high schools of California of courses on Pacific Relations and Japanese Culture. Investigation by the California Joint Immigration Committee showed that certain books intended for use in such courses, though they may not have been prepared by or under authority of the Institute of Pacific Relations, were open to criticism and it took action accordingly.

The State Board of Education announces as to one of such books against which complaint had been filed and hearing held—"Pacific Relations," by Walter G. Hoffman—that examination thereof and conference with author and publishers had led to withdrawal of the present edition. In its place there is now in press a new edition in which correction is made of matters criticized, and the California Joint Immigration Committee in consequence has withdrawn opposition to use of the book.

In September last, Scribner's Sons, on suggestion of Vierling Kersey, then state superintendent of public instruction, submitted for criticism proof of the text book, "America and the Western Frontier." Finding from evidence offered by the Joint Immigration Committee that certain portions thereof did not accord with the facts, the publishers delayed publication until the necessary corrections could be made.

The errors noted in these two text books were presumably due to lack of information on the part of the authors thereof. That, however, cannot be said of a text book on Japan in use in the public schools of Hawaii during 1935 and urged for use in the schools of continental United States. That book was prepared and used under joint sponsorship of the Institute of Pacific Relations, the Department of Education of Hawaii and the Society for Cultural Relations of Japan. Evidence published and not disputed showed that it had been issued under a plan of Japan—Claimed to have been adopted after conference with the approval of religious and educational authorities in the United States—to secure the friendship of American students through propaganda introduced into the public schools. Protest against its use had been made in Ha-

GARDEN VALLEY

The Garden Valley whist party set for February 5 has been postponed until March on account of the bad weather and sickness.

The Garden Valley school is closed for a second week by order of the trustees. Only seven out of 40 pupils were present Monday. Those absent were all ill or just recovering from the flu.

Howard Clark is spending a few days in Placerville visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandifer and Mr. and Mrs. John Miller were visiting in Kelsey and Placerville on Monday.

C. H. Weinscot and son of Sacramento, were her Sunday looking over some mining interests.

wait before the department of education and the territorial legislature, and in California by statement and exhibits filed by the California Joint Immigration Committee with the superintendent of public instruction in June, 1936. The book contained misstatements of fact as to the immigration question and concealment of other facts in connection with Japan's activities in Asia during the present century. As a result of the publicity given the matter, the secretary of the American council, I.P.R., on June 30, 1936, by letter to the California Joint Immigration Committee, conceded the justice of the criticism made, announced withdrawal of the book from further use and stated that errors which appeared therein would be corrected if another edition were issued.

In view of the situation thus indicated the California Joint Immigration Committee announces that it has available for use a mass of reliable data dealing with the subject of Asiatic immigration and connected matters, accumulated during 20 years of activity, and not to be had elsewhere without much research. Access to this information is offered without cost to authors and publishers who have in preparation school text books in which such subjects are discussed.

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

By STEVE SNIDER, pinch hitting for Henry McLemore.

CHICAGO (UP)—This is a portrait of a gentleman and scholar who believes big time football is the greatest mold of character a university can offer its young.

In the 17 years before he traded his record for a cloistered position at the University of Chicago, Prof. Clark Daniel Shaughnessy built a name as master gridiron tactician at Tulane and Loyola of the South.

With a team that licked only one big ten foe, he scored a huge personal success last season. Here's how:

A substitute entered one lop-sided game dominated in the final minutes by Ohio State's bulky buckles, 44 to 0, slapped his battered mates on the seats of their pants and yelled:

"Come on, gang, we'll whip these guys yet!"

That's real success in Shaughnessy's guide book. For such as that, he turned down the startling offers to employ his recognized talent elsewhere.

"I'd rather stay at Chicago than go to any other major school," Shaughnessy said. "Here, more than any other place I know, we have real amateur sport."

"None of my boys come to school to play football. We're too tough for that. Exceptional students like Jay Berwanger come along for classwork and play football in their spare time."

Shaughnessy, with the safest coaching job in the country, likes security for his wife, daughter and athletic son.

If Chicago ever starts to worry about its athletic plight again, they'll have to prove him absolutely incompetent in every respect to fire him. He is a full-fledged professor, who can retire on a pension in 20 years if he sticks around until he is 65.

"I don't think Chicago ever will drop out of the big ten—at least because of football," Shaughnessy said. "We were in it from the start and we want to stay in."

"But the thing I'm working on is a weaker schedule. With so few reserves, we can't play big teams every week. I want to arrange a schedule on which we can play conference schools every second Saturday."

The records show Chicago is a tough baby after an open date. Jay Berwan-

THAT'S HOW

BEVERLY HILLS (UP)—Willie Frank Dugan, 42, who writes "Death Rides the Highways" for the radio serials, was free today on bond after being found guilty of drunken driving. Dugan blamed one sleeping tablet, one glass of wine, an automobile and a vigilant deputy sheriff for his embarrassment in court.

ger kicked his All-American heels in the face of every Ohio State player on the lot in 1935, although the Maroons were defeated. Last season, Chicago whipped Wisconsin after a good rest.

Shaughnessy's chief problem is getting an every other week schedule to expire before New Year's Day.

SHINGLE SPRINGS

Pete Monte, who had been employed for some time past at the Mountain Copper Company's mine at Big Canyon, was taken very ill with pneumonia a few days ago. Dr. McKinnon was called to attend him on Friday and the following day he was removed to the hospital. Word was received Tuesday that he had passed away. It was with great sorrow that this message was received by his friends as he was held in high esteem by all who knew him. He was from San Francisco and is survived by relatives there.

Clyde Miller and Edna M. Coval were united in marriage on February 1, 1937 at the Taylor home here, Justice of the Peace William G. Taylor officiating. The couple reside at Rescue. Mr. and Mrs. D. Kling, also of Rescue, attended them. Congratulations are extended to the happy couple. The bride is the daughter of Edward Coval, old time resident of Rescue.

We will all be happy when the temperature moderates somewhat. It will be a relief from the longest severe cold spell within the memory of the oldest residents of this section of the state.

W. G. Taylor and son, Elmore Taylor, were business callers in Placerville Monday.

Johnson Brothers, Modesto, have bought the A. B. Humphrey warehouse at Escalon, San Joaquin County, and will use it to pack dried fruits and raisins.

SALMON FALLS

Rose Marie Abrams and Hall Kenny are two new pupils in school.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gillespie and daughter, Nellie, were recent guests of relatives here.

Chell Bosson and Julius Scherrer, are employed at the chrome mine near Negro Hill.

William Dahl is here from Burlington to spend a while at his summer cottage.

Henry Gray recently spent several days in San Francisco at the home of his sister, Mrs. Mary Layne and family.

Born, January 5, to Mr. and Mrs. George Kilner, a son, George Eugene. Mrs. Kilner was formerly Miss Adelgunde Busse and now lives at Oakland.

A. D. Green returned from the hospital Tuesday much improved from injuries in a recent accident. Mr. Green lost the fore finger of his left hand. He was in the hospital seven weeks.

Mrs. Eileen Hall Penrose passed away as a result of pneumonia at the home of her parents in Loomis on January 22. Mrs. Penrose was a fine young woman and her early passing was a shock to her family and friends. She was 27 years old. In addition to her husband and two small sons she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hall. She was a niece of Mrs. Nan Kelly.

COOL NOTES

The first meeting to be held this year by the North Side Farm Center is scheduled for Friday evening, February 5 at Penobscot school. Farm Advisor Lilley will give a talk on "Feeds and Feeding of Stock" which will be especially interesting to stockmen at this time. Reports on the Pasadena conventions will be given by State Director Lee Veerkamp and Miss Marian Enzler. Everett Haslam will present a resume of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation program and 5 reels of pictures will be shown.

We understand that Dick Nance, Pilot Hill merchant and postmaster, has purchased the Travelers' Home and service station from J. C. Martin. Miss Betty Rae Coudere was hostess to her school friends Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Coudere. The occasion was her twelfth birthday anniversary. Her guests were the Misses Fern Steever, Louise Eberhard, Lynn and Jean Haslam and Patsy Lafaille. Our postmaster, Alfred Brody, has purchased a new Ford pickup. Members were present at the regular Thursday afternoon meeting in spite of the inclement weather.

Mrs. Louis Enzler had a very fortunate escape Friday morning when her car skidded and turned over on the road near the Threlkel place. She escaped without injury and aside from the loss of a few quarts of oil the car was undamaged. J. C. Martin hastened to her aid and she was driving the car again the same afternoon.

William Salvage, of Perkins, spent Wednesday and Thursday at the Haslam ranch.

Saturday's storm piled up ten inches of snow at Penobscot, six inches at Cool and three inches at Pilot Hill.

Mrs. Richard Nance and daughter, Doris, are in quarantine for scarlet fever.

Mrs. Louis Enzler and sons, Bob and Jack left Sunday afternoon for Brandon where Mrs. Enzler has accepted the position of teacher for the balance of the year. They plan to spend week-ends at their ranch home here with Mr. Enzler and Miss Marian.

Miss Margaret Lehman was home from Stockton for the week-end.

COLOMA NEWS

Mrs. Frank Elliott and daughter, Effie, of Garden Valley called on Mrs. DeLory Saturday.

Mrs. Jane Southard and two children have concluded a visit of several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. A. Cassel and returned to their home in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Barber, of Oakland, spent the week-end here and took part in snow sports above Placerville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Asher, our photographers, left Monday by auto for a point as near as possible to Donner Lake to take pictures.

Our postmaster, Ray Rosenberger, is again attending to duties after being confined to his bed with a bad cold. Mr. McCutcheon is also up and about again.

Mrs. A. Cassel is improving from a sick spell lasting several weeks.

James Monroe was in Sacramento Saturday, shopping and visiting relatives.

The Rebekah card party this Tuesday was well attended in spite of the stormy weather. All had the usual

GEORGETOWN

Georgetown has been in the grip of another storm this week that put the telephone lines and the power lines out of commission for a few days and added a new fall of snow to that already on the ground until there is, at this writing, a depth of about forty inches.

This has done considerable damage to some of the older buildings, one in particular the large barn that was used as a feed and livery stable in the early days. It is now the property of Albert Cushman and collapsed under the heavy weight.

Snow shovellers are in demand as property owners are clearing away the present accumulation on roofs and driveways before the arrival of another storm which, at this writing, is threatening.

Those who braved the storm to attend the installation ceremonies for the Native Sons and Native Daughters held here on Wednesday evening of last week included Nora Gray, Lena Rantz, Edna Duden, Maud Panning, Ruth Lyon, Jessie Stevens, Mildred Leffevre, Lulu Cook, Agnes Schiff, Margaret Wilson, Henry Lyon, Harold Duden, Joseph Quigley, Euell Gray, Henry Panning, Glen Stevens of Placerville and Alice Egen and daughter, of Auburn, Albert Gardiner and wife, of Greenwood, and Clarence Hume and wife, of Garden Valley.

Mrs. George Smith and daughters, Evelyn and Marilyn, are spending a few days in Vallejo.

Jay French and Elinor Ogle, of Volcanoville, were in town Monday. They made the trip on snowshoes.

Supervisor William Breckelove spent the first of the week in Placerville where he attended the regular meeting of the County Board.

Alice Flynn was in Placerville on business Saturday.

School is closed for this week owing to the bad weather.

CAMINO NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Al DeBernardi returned Monday from a short visit in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamm spent the week end in Sacramento and Woodland.

Mr. and Mrs. Orr were Placerville visitors Wednesday.

Mr. Geo. Smith transacted business in Placerville Monday.

The Camino school children are enjoying an extended vacation on account of shortage of water. The boys have found the snow profitable as well as enjoyable as they have had plenty of work shoveling the snow from the roofs of the houses.

One section of the Camino Farm Center clubhouse collapsed from the weight of the snow but the remaining part of the building was saved, thanks to the timely aid of Mr. Gardella and Mr. Hamilton.

The two barns at the Blakely place collapsed under the weight of the snow.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hull and family motored to Yuba City Sunday. Mrs. Hull and children will visit there with her sister, Mrs. Roy Penney, for a week.

Mrs. I. Bingham, Mr. and Mrs. Deitz, Mrs. J. McNie, Archie McNie, Mr. and Mrs. C. Stevens, Mrs. E. Yybright, Mrs. Charles Ross, G. Burns, Peggy Burns and Kay Stevens were callers in Placerville Tuesday.

The Michigan-California Lumber company employees were kept busy Friday and Saturday clearing the snow from houses and other buildings.

The local chapter of the 4 Ls (Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen) cleared the company streets with a tractor loaned by the company on Saturday and Sunday and facilitated traveling.

The old residents of Camino who have lived here thirty or more years never have seen such a depth of snow here, nor such a cold January. Sunday, the last day of the month, was just a perfect day.

Jack Berry and G. Forrebeck went out on skis Wednesday morning to repair the telephone line to the cable.

William Wygersma motored to Sacramento on Wednesday.

good time. Mr. T. Chalmers is reported very ill with heart trouble. He is under the care of Dr. McKinnon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Houston drove to Niles last week where they purchased and had shipped from the California nursery a very fine assortment of roses, shrubs and evergreen for the grounds of their new home here.

LOTUS

The cold weather still hangs on. Another snow storm of about four inches came to us on Saturday, continuing most all day. This makes the fourth snow here during the month of January and the fifth since December 31. The past month was about the same as January in 1916 and with the cold weather we rather expect that late frosts may hit our pears and peaches.

Tuesday was Groundhog day and we wouldn't blame the little fellow if he didn't come out at all, but remained in his hole all day.

E. J. McKenney and wife, and their son, Elwin, came up from Sacramento Friday afternoon and returned Sunday evening. While here the men folk spent several hours in their mine.

Elwin Veerkamp, business man of Placerville, passed through our town on Monday morning enroute to the Sacramento ranch near Shingle for a couple of young calves for his butchering business.

Monday being a cold and unpleasant day did not keep George Pountain at home. He drove over to Placerville on business and also to see how much was in that town.

Leland Borland and his mother, Mrs. Annie Borland came up from Sacramento last Saturday and visited for a short time with John Hume at Coloma. Mrs. Borland is the only sister of John Hume and he is an uncle to Leland.

Among those from here who visited in Sacramento the past week were George Luneman, of the Webber Creek district; Mayor Marion Burgess, of Coloma, and Dennis O'Brien and Fred Castillo, of here.

E. J. Jones, stockman of North Sacramento, as calling on friends here on Saturday last. Mr. Jones has been hauling hay to the ranch of Henry Bacchi and Archie Lawyer. He expects to haul in another load of some six tons within a few days.

Gus Snyder, of Dry Creek, in the Garden Valley section, was attending to business matters here on Monday. Sheriff George Smith came over from Placerville Sunday to look after his property interests in the Webber Creek district and made short calls on his Lotus friends.

While eating supper with his friends near here, and with his car parked a short distance from the house, Frank Croolie lost 15 gallons of gasoline out of his car tank. The thieves left the tank empty. This stealing from automobiles has been going on for some time and mark me the thieves will be caught in the act and will probably serve a term in the county jail.

Melvin Gibson came down from Volcanoville the past week and spent a few hours at the home of Mrs. Angie DeLory in Coloma and also called on friends in our vicinity.

Mrs. Ella Norris, Mrs. Angie DeLory and son, Everett, and Walter Spoon, all of Coloma, were attending to business matters in our town the past week.

Among those on our streets Sunday were Henry Lahiff and Freeman Luddell, of Placerville and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Herzog, Jr., and family, of the Andrew Marchini ranch.

Dudley Freeland and wife came up from Sacramento the past week and

1934 TARIFF ACT OPPOSED BY FARM BODY

BERKELEY—California's congressional delegation was asked today by Alex Johnson, secretary-treasurer of the California Farm Bureau Federation, to work for the repeal of the 1934 Reciprocal Tariff Act.

Advising California senators and congressmen of the sentiment prevailing against this measure, Mr. Johnson quoted the resolution adopted two years ago by the federation in which leading growers, farmers, and livestock men resolved:

"That the California Farm Bureau Federation demand the repeal of the 1934 Reciprocal Tariff Act, and the abrogation of existing trade treaties, tariffs or agreements, detrimental to domestic agricultural producers."

Since November, 1935, when this resolution was adopted, the view point of California farmers has not changed, Mr. Johnson declares.

Summing up the effect of treaties with European countries and with Pan-American nations under the 1934 Reciprocal Tariff Act, Mr. Johnson points out that:

"It would appear the general situation in Europe is calculated to bar any expansion of international trade unless this can be accomplished to the very

Signs Which Confuse Drivers Are Doomed

SACRAMENTO — Highway advertisements that confuse motorists or in any way must be removed, E. Raymond Cato, chief of the California Highway Patrol, announced today.

Acting on the request of the division of highways, the patrol chief has issued orders to his force to begin an immediate check for offending signs, signals or lights. Complaints will be sought against owners who do not remove them.

Ed Willis, state highway maintenance superintendent, is up and about following a recent influenza attack. During his illness Archie Irish has been up from Sacramento, attending to the work and renewing old friendships.

STATE SKI MEET FEBRUARY 14 AT AUBURN'S JUMP

California Ski Association state championships, formerly scheduled for February 19 and 20 have been set forward a week and will be held February 13 and 14 at Cisco, according to announcement by winter sports committee, state chamber of commerce.

Held on the home grounds of the Auburn Ski Club, the meet will consist of jumping only and will include A, B, C and D Class events, it was stated. The down-hill and slalom events will be staged at Yosemite later on in the season.

Among entries already signed up for the jumping events will be representatives of Auburn Ski Club, Reno Ski Club, Truckee Ski Club, Big Pine and Viking Ski Clubs of Southern California, Lake Tahoe Ski Club, Mt. Lassen Ski Club, Yosemite Ski Club, Mt. Shasta Snowmen and Placerville Ski Club.

Keen competition is expected to mark the Class A events which carry with it the California state championship. Among the outstanding participants in these jumps will be Roy Mikkelsen, former national ski champion, Auburn Ski Club; Sigurd Ulland, defending state champion, Tahoe Ski Club; John Elverum and Harry Tregellis of Viking Ski Club, and Ted Rex of Mt. Lassen Ski Club, runner-up in the state championship last year.

H. WOLVERTON, FORMER SEAL'S MANAGER, DEAD

OAKLAND (UP)—Police today were investigating reportedly mysterious circumstances surrounding the death of Harry Wolverton, 57, former manager of the San Francisco Seals baseball club.

His body, with head bruises and face lacerations, was found on a street here last night. It was believed he was the victim of a hit-run driver or a thug.

Wolverton retired from baseball in 1924 but had led his team to pennant victories in 1915 and 1917. He had been employed recently as a special policeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Hosts On Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jewell were hosts Wednesday evening at their home on Main Street, to a group of Mr. Jewell's old-time friends.

Dinner was followed by an evening of cards and sociability. Those present included Charles W. Ball, Guy E. Wentworth, F. J. Raffetto, Jake Loewenstein, Ben Federer, Jules Besse, Emmett D. Golden and William Martin.

Mrs. Jewell was the former Mrs. A. Brule of this city.

The dairymen of Kings County received $2,199,046 for milk sold to manufacturing plants in 1936.

TRADE STRONG IN SPITE OF LABOR RIFTS

SAN FRANCISCO—A strong upward surge in business throughout California has been blocked by the water front tie-up, according to a report to be given to the directors of the California State Chamber of Commerce in their meeting today. The report states that while general business activity in California has moved toward higher levels since November, unfavorable conditions exist in industries associated with foreign trade and where other labor frictions retard operations.

While the general rains since the middle of December, have been favorable to agriculture by replenishing the needed soil moisture, the low temperature and frosts during January caused considerable damage to the citrus and winter truck crops and retarded the growth of range and pasture feed.

The 1936 gross farm income from crops, livestock, and livestock products for California is unofficially estimated at about $618,000,000, an increase of 17 per cent over 1935 and 66 per cent greater than the low for 1932. It is, however, still 18 per cent under the high for 1929.

The December employment index, adjusted for expected seasonal changes reached 107 per cent of the 1926 average, which was the highest since December, 1929. Employment during December was about 11 per cent greater than for the same month in 1935 and total payrolls showed a gain of 19 per cent.

California's mineral output during 1936 aggregated $300,557,000, an increase of 12½ per cent over the previous year and the largest since 1929.

Total value of building permits for 51 California cities increased 7½ per cent during December as compared with the previous month, after adjustment is made for seasonal influences. The total for 1936 was slightly over $173,000,000, or 80 per cent greater than the total for 1935.

Retail trade improved more than seasonal expectations.

The San Joaquin Rabbit Breeders will hold a three-day show at the fair grounds in Stockton, April 2-4.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Jones of Placerville, were at Clements recently, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Jones of that place. They were called to Clements by the recent death of Harry Lamb, brother of Mrs. W. Jones, for whom funeral services were held at Mokelumne Hill.
